Venue

Modern central London hotel with open workshop and conference area integrated with an exhibition

Venue: The London Hilton Bankside is the new home of TBTC. It is a modern hotel with a bronzed–metal facade just three minutes' walk from Southwark tube station (Jubilee line) or London Blackfriars mainline/tube (District/Circle) and just a 12-minute walk from both London Bridge and London Waterloo/Waterloo East stations.

Conference space: The totally open workshop and conference area integrated into our intimate exhibition ensures you will not miss a moment of the action.
